To whom it may concern;

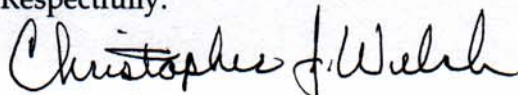

Advanced Specialty Contractors, LLC is one of the largest full-service specialty contractors in the Northeast. Operating through an integrated network of contracting offices across the region, we opened a branch in Western Michigan.

We contacted Szar Communications to recommend, order, and install all of our current telecommunication services. Szar Communications made sure we had dial tone, long distance capability at the best price, and Internet connectivity. We currently are a small part of a larger organization, but have plans to grow in a very short period of time.

Szar Communications has taken the communication concerns away from us and has allowed us to focus on the growth of our business.

Base on service, relationship, and cost we certainly made the right choice.

Respectfully:
